NANS

A Taste of Asia

The distinct flavors, textures and shapes of Asia are baked into each of our different nans paying tribute to their regions, cultures and ancient origins.

Use them with traditional Asian dishes or to enhance a contemporary cuisine.

- TANDOORI NAN—Traditional oval-shaped nan from Central and Northern India with a mild flavor.
- KULCHA NAN—A staple of both Indian and Pakistani cuisines, made with very little oil, without spices and often eaten with spicy foods for contrast.
- ROGHANI NAN—An Afghani-style wheat nan made with sesame & soy flours to achieve its signature flavor profile.
- MISSY ROTI—Indian nan with chickpea flour and cumin, coriander & crushed red pepper gives this nan a unique spicy flavor.
- MASSALA NAN—A wonderfully flavorful nan made with a blend of hot chilis, onions, & a medley of Asian spices.
